

2025 PROTECTING YOUR MONEY: ELDER FRAUD

---

Join your credit union and library for a financial literacy program that empowers older adults to recognize, prevent, and respond to scams and fraud.

As scammers increasingly target seniors through phone calls, emails, and in-person schemes, this session highlights common elder fraud tactics, key red flags, and steps to take if fraud occurs.

Whether you're protecting yourself or a loved one, this program offers essential guidance to help safeguard your financial well-being.

DETAILS:

Thursday, September 11th
from 10:00am to 11:00am

Program held at
Tuscarawas County Public Library - Main Branch at
121 Fair Ave NW, New Phila

REGISTER TODAY!

Call the library to register at 330-364-4474.

Federally Insured by NCUA | Equal Housing Lender

